24) I adhere to the opinion expressed in para 16. The essence of all institutions based on panchayat system is honorary service. When the chief & most responsible work is honorary on what principle can pay be made for subsidiary work. The idea is that the people themselves should settle their petty differences & the employment of paid agency for any part of the work is not desirable.

Final Note by the Second Member of Council.

Subject:—

Grant of an allowance of Rs.5/- per mensem to the Village Munsiff of Bellavi in the Tumkur District for engaging the services of a Gumastha for doing the clerical work connected with his Court.

Copy under disposal. 32) The Revenue Commissioner in Mysore recommends the grant of a small allowance of Rs.5/- per mensem to the Village Munsiff of Bellavi for securing the services of a gumastha to get through the clerical work of his Court, which is fairly large.

2.33) The Council is of opinion that the proposal may be sanctioned. But the Financial Secretary considers the payment of an allowance undesirable for reasons set out in paragraphs 16 and 24 of the notes.

34) 3. The main ground of objection apparently is that as "the chief and most responsible work" (namely, the hearing of cases) is honorary, payment for "subsidiary work" (i.e., clerical work) cannot on principle be done by paid agency.

Copy of office notes 35) 4. The actual decision of cases is, however, what is primarily intended to be done by honorary agency. It cannot be expected that clerical labour, especially where work is on the increase, can always be got done gratuitously. The question, in short, is one of practical necessity or convenience rather than of principle, and as such the opinion of the Council may be approved. I may add that the Village Courts Regulation, VII of 1913 (Sec.7), authorises the employment of any person to assist the Village Munsiff in keeping registers and writing proceedings.
